SOLD ALSO FOR MONTHLY OR QUARTERLY PAYMENTS.

The Finest Assortment of the Best Reed Organs in the World, at prices which render them cheapest.

Naturally almost every manufacturer advertises organs of his make as THE BEST. The Mason & Hamlin Company do not ask the public to believe this of their instruments merely because they assert it; but present as evidence the fact that AT EVERY ONE OF THE GREAT WORLD'S EXPOSITIONS FOR TWELVE YEARS they have received

HIGHEST HONORS

FOR THE BEST INSTRUMENTS OF THIS CLASS. There has been no exception; they have taken the highest award in EVERY such competition; no other American maker has been awarded such at any.

They have been so honored at PARIS, in 1867; at VIENNA, in 1873; at SANTIAGO, in 1875; at PHILADELPHIA, in 1876; and at the recent PARIS Exposition, in 1878, where they received two highest medals, including the ONLY GOLD MEDAL awarded to any American musical instruments. They also received the much-coveted GOLD MEDAL, Litteris et artibus of SWEDEN AND NORWAY, 1878.

These comparisons have been the MOST IMPORTANT, CAREFUL, and COMPETENT POSSIBLE; being instituted by the Governments under which they were held, by whom most capable and trustworthy jurors were officially selected from the world; weeks and months being allowed for the test and comparison of the different instruments side by side.

SUCH A UNIFORM RESULT AT EVERY ONE of these comparisons amounts to nothing less than ACTUAL DEMONSTRATION of the unequalled excellence of these organs.

Prices are as low as work of such excellence can possibly be afforded, and, partly because of the unequalled facilities for manufacture of the Mason & Hamlin Company, will be found only a little more than those of very inferior organs. They are sold not only for cash, but also for easy payments.

THE ADVANCE.

"Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before"

1879.

The ADVANCE is pronounced by many of our friends "better than ever before." They may be too partial in their judgment but it is true that our facilities for making a family newspaper of the highest excellence have greatly increased since taking charge of the ADVANCE six years ago.

I. We have never lost a good contributor, that we are aware of, except by death; and those that our readers particularly admire may be expected to be heard from the coming year. The various departments, EDITORIAL, SPECIAL CONTRIBUTIONS, CORRESPONDENCE, CHRISTIAN LIFE, SABBATH SCHOOL, THE CHILDREN, PERSONALS, LITERATURE, LITERARY SMALL TALK, OPINIONS, CHURCH NEWS, GENERAL RELIGIOUS NEWS, AROUND OUR TABLE, TRIFLES, FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE, and EVENTS OF THE WEEK, will be kept up with their wonted ability and interest.

II. We propose to add a new Department, to be called to be managed by a person of much editorial experience and of acknowledged skill — one of the editors "born, not made." This Department is to be prepared with reference to the average family; to contain reading for the tired mother, for the busy father and for the entire circle, — entertaining, useful, instructive, helpful. It will not be aimed above the heads of even the young folks.

III. We invite attention to a few special Contributors with whom a definite arrangement has been made. For example: DR. C. L. GOODELL, of St. Louis, is to furnish at least one article a month during the year; THEODORE L. CUYLER is to continue his series of "Pointed Papers" in the ADVANCE; JOSEPH T. DURYEA, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is to write regularly; Prof. JOHN F. WEIR, the organizer and present head of the Art Department of Yale College, — himself a gifted and successful painter, — will complete his series of delightful reminiscences of West Point, and will then take our readers to the Tenth Street Studios of New York in a number of sketchy letters on art and artists as seen by him; GENERAL JAMES GRANT WILSON, author of "Sketches of Illustrious Soldiers" and other popular works, himself distinguished in the cavalry service of the late war, and eminent since as a contributor to our best magazine literature, will furnish occasionally one of his entertaining essays; HON. JOHN V. FARWELL, the well-known merchant of Chicago, has consented to write on practical subjects connected with business, with lay Christian work, etc. Other eminent laymen have been engaged to write on matters which they have special qualifications for presenting in a common-sense and instructive way.

IV. GEN. O. O. HOWARD'S sketches of battles and campaign experiences will be continued. If no more wars occur to prevent, it is expected he will take up Reminiscences of some of the great battles of the Rebellion.

K. A. BURNELL'S "Round the World" notes, taken on the spot, will give vivid pictures of missionary life and what he saw in Egypt in the Holy Land, in Constantinople, and in Western Europe.

Our able and always fresh and interesting correspondence from WASHINGTON, BOSTON, NEW YORK, and ST. LOUIS will be continued, with occasional letters, as heretofore, from other news centres.

JOSEPH COOK'S MONDAY LECTURES condensed from the Boston Advertiser, for which they are revised by Mr. Cook himself, will be given with about the same fulness as in former years. The condensation will depend upon the popular interest of the subject under discussion.

V. Our NEW YORK OFFICE will remain at the Bible House, Astor Place Rev. R. B. Howard, our Associate Editor for the Eastern Department, by his connection with the New York Association of Ministers, by attendance upon the State Conferences in New England, and by his central location, gives the ADVANCE all the facilities of a New York journal in addition to its advantages as a Western paper.

VI. Old readers of the ADVANCE will remember the thrilling story, "Paugus and his Braves," published some years ago. We have always desired to have another story from this brilliant and piquant writer, and now have to announce

"BURDENS BRAVELY BORNE,"

A New Story of absorbing interest, written in the author's vivacious and picturesque style, and full of what one critic has termed "heart-helpful passages, like those which abounded in Mrs. Prentis's 'Stepping Heavenward.'" The secret of the author's name will become an open one with the first chapters, which will soon be published. We are confident the ADVANCE has never published a story that on the whole will be read with more general satisfaction.

VII. Besides what has been named, the ADVANCE will continue to keep its front rank in that enterprising outlook for all that is newsy and valuable in the current literature, and in securing able and eminent writers in all parts of the world. The editorials will handle in a prompt, candid, generous but emphatic, terse, and discriminating way from the Christian point of view, the foremost topics of the hour. Whenever particular topics can be better treated by specialists outside the office, we do not hesitate to supplement by their pens the work of our own editors.

VIII. TERMS. Subscription price, $3 a year in advance; to clergymen, $2 20. Remit by check or post-office money order.

IX. We publish also a WEEKLY Sunday School Paper, the "SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS AND BIBLE STUDIES," only one dollar a year; Monthly LESSON LEAVES, 60 cents per hundred; the BIBLE STUDIES QUARTERLY, with pictures, music, concert exercises, etc., only 4 cents each; in clubs of twenty-five, 10 cents. Sample copies free.

CONGREGATIONALIST,

A National Religious Journal.

As a family religious journal, the Congregationalist aims to stand in the front rank. Its editorial force is as follows:—

EDITOR,
REV. HENRY M. DEXTER, D. D.
NEW YORK EDITOR,
REV. ALEXANDER HUNTINGTON CLAPP, D. D.
MANAGING EDITOR,
CHARLES A. RICHARDSON.
ASSOCIATE EDITORS,
REV. MORTON DEXTER. MRS. SARAH K. BOLTON.
AGRICULTURAL EDITOR,
HON. J. F. C. HYDE.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT is intended to be marked by special thoroughness of research, freshness of thought, candor and accuracy of statement, and honorable fealty to the faith once delivered to the saints, "as held by our fathers," and—in the language of the Boston Council of 1865—"substantially as embodied in the confessions and platforms which our Synods of 1648 and 1680 set forth or reaffirmed." Welcoming the new so far as it is good, we cannot condemn the good because it is old.

CORRESPONDENCE.—Besides a weekly letter from the New York editor, we have regular correspondents at Washington, Chicago, New Haven, and Atlanta. We have a multitude of special correspondents in different parts of the country.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.—In this department the paper is generally conceded to have achieved a higher measure of success than any of its contemporaries. Those who wish to keep well informed as to the progress of events in our Congregational churches, especially those in New England, often say to us that they cannot do without the Congregationalist for this reason, if for no other. This news is gathered from various sources each week, and carefully condensed so as to occupy the least practicable space.

BROADSIDES.—Another specialty of the Congregationalist is its plan of occasionally devoting an entire page to a single topic, and concentrating upon it a large variety of view and talent. This has proved a useful as well as popular feature.

THE LITERARY REVIEW occupies a weekly average of at least four columns of space, and seeks, while fairly and with considerable fulness reviewing important volumes, to give brief indications of the quality of the lighter issues which swarm from the modern press. This department is edited in the interest of book-buyers and readers, rather than that of publishers. Special attention is also given to literary news and notes.

THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT contains a large variety, including a puzzle department, poetry, and articles in large type for the youngest.

THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, which is under the charge of a practical man with large experience, we have had occasion to know is greatly valued by many amateur gardeners for the special good sense of its suggestions. More or less space is also given to household matters.

CONTRIBUTORS.—Among these we may name, as having lately furnished articles, the following:—

PROF. W. M. BARBOUR, D. D.
PRES. S. C. BARTLETT, D. D.
CHARLOTTE F. BATES.
REV. A. J. F. BEHRENDS, D. D.
REV. LEONARD BACON, D. D.
MRS. HELEN C. BARNARD.
REV. N. G. CLARK, D. D.
REV. T. L. CUYLER, D. D.
MR. C. C. COFFIN.
MRS. ANNIE S. DOWNS.
MRS. MARY B. DODGE.
HON. NEAL DOW.
REV. W. L. GAGE.
REV. J. O. MEANS, D. D.
REV. SELAH MERRILL, D. D.
PROF. AUSTIN PHELPS, D. D.
PRES. W. W. PATTON, D. D.
PROF. M. B. RIDDLE, D. D.
MRS. ABBY SAGE RICHARDSON.
REV. J. M. STURTEVANT, D. D.
REV. G. L. WALKER, D. D.
REV. J. L. WITHROW, D. D.

In short, the Congregationalist is attractive, comprehensive, thoroughly edited in every inch of its space, and distinctively evangelical.

THE

New York Observer,

THE BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER,

Publishes both the religious and secular news that is desired in any family, while all that is likely to do harm is shut out. It devotes four pages to religious news and four to secular.

The New York Observer has continued its even course for fifty-six years, without a change of name, doctrine, intent, purpose, or pledge from the date of its birth.

The 57th Volume

Will contain all the important news that can interest or instruct, so that any one who reads it will be thoroughly posted.

Few religious papers in the world have lived so long under the same name and management, and none can point to so large and permanent a constituency. One reason for this is found in the consistent, conservative character which the Observer has maintained. The sober, thinking portion of the American people appreciate soundness in doctrine and purity in morals, and will sustain a paper which contends for these.

We propose to make the Best Newspaper that is published, and we propose to sell it as cheaply as it can be afforded. Let those who want pure, sound, sensible, truthful reading, subscribe for it, and let them induce others to do the same.

We send no Premiums. We will send you the BEST CABINET ORGANS FOR 1879!

The LATEST and MOST SIGNIFICANT SUCCESS in the LIST OF VICTORIES won by the

NEW ENGLAND ORGAN COMPANY,

was achieved by their Large and Magnificent Exhibit of 24 NEW STYLES of Cabinet Organs, at the GRAND TWO MONTHS' FAIR, in Boston, 1878, inaugurated by the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association, whose Official Judges awarded them

ANOTHER FIRST GOLD MEDAL!

after the longest and most exacting competitive trial to which Reed Organs were ever subjected in America. The Committee's Report declared, "As to the comparative power and quality of tone developed by the comparative exhibits, and where, from a similarity in class, the specimens could be placed side by side, we were UNANIMOUS in the opinion that the

NEW ENGLAND ORGAN COMPANY

EXCELLED IN

Smoothness, Evenness, and Power in the Bass, and this fact obtained in ALL the classes in their regular line of manufacture."

And after enumerating many other ORIGINAL and EXCLUSIVE MERITS, they were conceded worthy of a FIRST GOLD MEDAL for many specified

"VALUABLE IMPROVEMENTS,

And Superior Power and Volume of Tone."

The Committee also paid a most emphatic compliment to the NEW ENGLAND ORGAN COMPANY for "their Enterprise, Energy, and especially the High Character of their work, attained in a comparatively short career."

THREE FIRST GOLD MEDALS

were won by this Company within 14 MONTHS; and 2 of these were OVER ALL COMPETITORS, at the GREAT DOUBLE PORTLAND FAIR OF 1877, for being the BEST CABINET ORGANS FOR CHURCH AND HOME USE.

No other Organs ever won so many HIGHEST AWARDS in America, in so short a time, and when minutely compared with their OLDEST RIVALS. They are

UNRIVALED IN GENERAL FAVOR.

A Note from JOHN G WHITTIER, the Poet.

OAK KNOLL, DANVERS, 1 Mo. 29, 1878.

My dear Friend,—I have received the first two numbers of the "Sunday Afternoon," and have read them with hearty satisfaction. It seems to me a complete success; it does all that it claims or aims to do, and I have no doubt that it will find a wide circulation.

I am glad to see that the author of "Deephaven," one of the most charming books which has been published for the last decade, has a place in it. The quaint, tender and beautiful simplicity of Marian Douglas's "Dorcas" is most refreshing after reading more pretentious and stilted verse writers.

I need not wish thee success, it is thine already. Thy readers, like Tennyson's wanderers, cannot fail to rejoice that they have reached the place "where it is always Afternoon."

Thy friend,

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

MISS ELIZABETH STUART PHELPS kindly sanctions the publication of her opinion of the magazine as follows: "I like your magazine better and better. We have nothing like it."

The "Boston Advertiser" says it is "Able and very interesting. . . Crowded with matter which is good and bright in a literary sense and useful in every sense."

The "Sunday School Times" says: "Continues to hold its place in the very front of American magazines, few of which equal it in ability and none of which have greater originality and freshness."

The "Boston Transcript" says: "In these days, when there is so much that is milk and water in our periodical literature, 'Sunday Afternoon' acts upon the reader like a tonic. The editorial department is especially strong."

The "Hartford Courant" says: "Is edited with extreme cleverness, and presents a great variety of bright, entertaining, and suggestive matter."

PREFACE.

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES OF THE UNITED STATES, at its session of 1877, resolved "that an annual compilation of the statistics of our churches throughout the country, and especially an accurate and complete list of ministers in fellowship, should be published under the sanction of this Council." It instructed its Publishing Committee to "have the charge and oversight . . . of the compilation and publication of statistics and the distribution of the same"; and it requested, from the constituent bodies, sufficient contributions for the expenses thereof.

Resolutions to the above effect had been introduced by the Business Committee; referred to a committee of seven (Hon. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, Chairman), which carefully considered the subject and unanimously reported that they ought to pass; and the action of the Council, after deliberate consideration, was also unanimous. The wish also found considerable, though unofficial, utterance (especially among western members of the Council) that this authorized publication take the form of a YEAR-BOOK, self-complete and encumbered by no relations with any periodical, which must necessarily diminish its value and impair the comfort of its use to all non-subscribers for the remainder of the year. Many went so far as to declare that our churches were sensibly suffering for the lack of some such natural, visible record and symbol of the existence, unity, and power of Congregationalism in this land.

As those statistics had for some time been published by private enterprise in the Congregational Quarterly, — for whose prosperity none but the warmest desires were by any person expressed, — conference was sought with its editor and proprietor, in the hope of effecting some arrangement by which the Council might assume its own proper function without conflict with his interests. As the result, in the impression that a generous course would best suit the feelings and judgment of all concerned, the committee, a year ago, made proposals which, after some additional stipulations by the owner of the Quarterly, were accepted. The committee consented to the prior appearance in the Quarterly for January, 1878, of the statistics which it prepared and authorized, and also paid the proprietor — in money and in the free use of its type, which cost it, and saved him, money — a sum amounting to three fourths of the entire capital invested by him in his journal, at the estimate he then appeared to put upon it. The committee did all this (as they understood it), expressly reserving to the Council, in view of the consideration paid and the arrangement made, the right at any future time to publish a Year-Book, should such a course seem to be expedient, without further consideration of the relation of the Quarterly to the subject.

The owner of the Quarterly expressed to the committee and others his entire content with this as a "liberal arrangement." The committee (which includes the two original proprietors and editors of the Quarterly) also believed that the January statistics had always been an expensive encumbrance to its pages; and that, were its owner to remit their publication to a Year-Book, and devote the space — with the large amount of money — thus saved, to matter of a more popular quality and a more miscellaneous value, he might reasonably hope to enlarge materially its circulation, and make it pecuniarily profitable.

On proceeding, however, two months ago, to take the preliminary steps for this Year-Book, the members of the committee encountered from their friend, the proprietor of the Quarterly, and some of his friends, an opposition which filled them with surprise, and now find themselves, in the October number of that journal, substantially charged with the responsibility of its suspension. They admit no such responsibility. Having a year ago, with a generous sum, purchased for the Council the right to issue a Year-Book without opposition from the Quarterly, they now entertain no doubt that the great majority of the Congregationalists of the land, while friendly to that journal, prefers to have the annual statistics of the churches made ready to its convenience with such accompaniments as a Year-Book naturally favors; and therefore they "find it desirable" to print them, for 1879, in that form.

The first American publication of the character of a Congregational Year-Book appears to have been sent out by Dr. Dorus Clarke in 1846, and this was followed by something a little more elaborate, in the same line, by Dr. Parsons Cooke, in 1847. In 1854 the American Congregational Union issued one, under the editorship of the late Rev. T. Atkinson, which was continued yearly until 1860, upon and since which date the statistics have been printed in the Quarterly.

It can hardly be necessary here to emphasize the fact that the "Forms" offered claim no authority; while it is thought they may often be a convenience, especially among new churches, and in the hands of ministers who have just begun to acquire a Congregational experience.

It is hoped that the beautiful designs of Mr. Valk, with the clear and minute explanations from his own pen, will prove of real practical use to not a few churches. No architect stands higher than he in Congregational circles, and his great ingenuity, his philosophical comprehension of the chief needs to be met, and the eminently practical character of his mind, commend him, his designs and suggestions to the confidence, especially of those in moderate circumstances, who desire the best church building for the least possible money.

The Congregational Calendar is a first and hasty attempt, but suggests what may be done hereafter. Its special feature is the reduction of all dates previous to Sept. 14, 1752, to New Style, in which it is believed to be unique; thus relieving it of the slovenly inaccuracy by which a resemblant calendar was made last year to class together, as on the same day, the death of a distinguished author and the formation of a particular church, which would accurately have been separated by an interval of eleven days.

Mr. Hazen has been good enough to give to this Year-Book the benefit of his latest studies among vital statistics, which have been formerly so much esteemed elsewhere.

The secretary wishes to reiterate what has been repeatedly stated, as to the rule on which the list of ministers is made up. He disclaims, as heretofore, all authority, and all duty, to do anything save to put into alphabetical order the lists furnished by the several State organizations. A new list is necessarily made each year. It includes all that are reported, and does not include anybody not reported. To carry names not reported was tried many years ago, and it loaded the list with Presbyterians, Baptists, Episcopalians, and brethren deceased.

The compiler of the annual statistics prepared the issue of January, 1860, on a system then entirely new. Successive additions have been made, but no feature has been discontinued. The compiler early prepared a plan of statistics and of collection for the whole country, and submitted it to the several organizations. Excepting three war years (1862, '63, '64) and the years 1876 and '77, he has compiled and superintended the publication of each annual issue to the present. In disposing of his interest in the Quarterly, in 1874, he especially reserved the right to engage in the compilation and publication of these denominational statistics.

Regarding the statistics themselves, it is greatly to be desired that the several State organizations would place upon their schedules all the items recommended by the National Council. The columns of Families and Benevolent Contributions are still missing in a few States. Also, the first names of ministers, and the year of ordination, are needed in every instance. Blank forms for the collection of statistics will be sent, in any quantity, to any State Secretary, free of charge, on application to the Secretary of the Council, 34 School Street, Boston, Mass.

DESIGNS IN CHURCH ARCHITECTURE.

By Lawrence B. Valk.

The designs submitted have been prepared expressly for this work — being existing examples of churches lately erected — all within the last four years. Care has been taken to show complete items of cost, as a guide to societies contemplating the erection of houses of worship. The designs are all in the Gothic style, with simple, inexpensive details, without elaborate carving or useless architectural forms or ornaments; every effort having been made to produce the greatest utility and economy, combined with beauty to the exterior and most particularly the interior; to obtain every comfort of seeing and hearing, and to make the audience rooms as churchlike as possible.

All the designs submitted have been arranged for the circular seats and bowled floor, as introduced and invented by the architect; as it has been shown that nothing exceeds this arrangement of the circular seats, radiating aisles, and bowled floor for comfort and producing sociality among the members.

Some of the designs show the timbers of the interior; others have arched iron and wood ceilings. As to the iron, it is quite a new feature. Plates 8 and 9 have rich groined arched ceilings of iron. This iron is finely ribbed, weighs one pound per square foot (plastering weighs four and a half pounds per square foot), is secured by wrought nails, which are concealed; the iron is then painted on the back side a coat of metallic paint, and on the face side one coat in oil, and then decorated, frescoed, and ornamented as desired; the great and leading feature being the wonderful acoustic property secured by the use of the iron. It is also free from damage by any leakage, and no matter how costly the decorating may be, it cannot be harmed, while there is also no shrinkage nor liability to fall; and its very lightness enables a light construction to be used in the roof and ceiling framing.

In presenting these designs the aim is to show such features as represent most churchly character, with all the comforts desired and required in a modern church building. With each plate are the items of cost, the size of the building and seating capacity, with remarks on construction; the drawings giving a clear idea of each arrangement. For further particulars relating to these plans, or for any other form or shape desired in church planning, address the architect,

Lawrence B. Valk,
229 Broadway, New York.

FORMS FOR CONGREGATIONAL USE.

[The following forms are suggested to aid the inexperienced, and not because many other methods of phrasing the same ideas may not have equal or superior merit. Least of all is it to be imagined that in virtue of being thus suggested, they possess any authority, other than may exist in manifest fitness to their use.]

No. I.

Form of a Church-member's letter of request for Dismission, for the purpose of uniting with others in the formation of a new Church.

To the —— Church in ——.

Dear Brethren:

Whereas the Providence of God [has led me to this place, and] seems to make it my duty to join with other Christians here in the formation of a Congregational Church; this is to request you to give me such a letter of dismission and recommendation as may be suitable in these circumstances.

With Christian salutations,
Your brother in the Lord,
A—— B——.

[Date and Place.]

No. II.

Form of a Church's Letter of Dismission in answer to the above request.

To the Ecclesiastical Council to be convened in ——, for the formation (if judged expedient) of a Congregational Church there.

Dear Brethren:

Whereas A —— B —— is a member of this church in good and regular standing, and has requested a letter of dismission and recommendation, for the purpose of uniting with other Christians in forming a new Congregational Church in ——; let this certify that the Church has voted to grant his request. And should your venerable body advise the formation of such a church, and recognize him and his associates as constituting the same, his particular relation to us will be at an end.

By vote of the Church,
[Signature of Pastor or Clerk.]

No. III.

Form of Letter Missive requesting the presence of a Council for the formation of a Congregational Church.

To the Congregational Church of Christ in ——.

N. B. The churches invited to sit in this Council are the following, viz:—
Congregational Church in ——. Rev. Mr. ——, Pastor.
" " " ——. " " ——, " etc., etc.
[Name them all.]

No. IV.

Form of result appropriate for such a Council.

A number of Christion believers resident in ——, having become persuaded that it is God's will for them to associate as a Congregational Church, and having agreed together for such a purpose, and requested neighboring Congregational Churches to examine their condition and procedure, and advise them in the premises: by virtue of letters missive from them, an Ecclesiastical Council was assembled at ——, in ——, on the —— of —— at —— o'clock, ——, which was composed of the following delegates of the following churches, viz.:

[Name all the churches, either in alphabetical order, or by seniority of formation, with their clerical and lay representatives.]

The Council was organized by the choice of —— Moderator, —— Scribe, [and —— Assistant Scribe,] and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

A full statement of the facts in the case was then made, with the reasons which have led the brethren and sisters to desire and propose this union as a Church; and the Council, either by letters of dismission and recommendation, or by personal examination, became satisfied of the fitness of these parties for such union, and of the fact that the Great Head of the Church seems clearly to call them to such a work in this place. The Articles of Faith and Covenant by them presented as the basis of their organization were also carefully examined and approved by the Council.

After which the Council, being by themselves, voted to advise the parties calling them to go forward in the work to which they have set their hands, and to extend to them, in so doing, the fellowship of the Churches which it represents.

[State arrangements made for the public service of recognition, etc., with the minute of their due performance.]

[Signatures of Officers of Council.]

No. VI.

Form of Rules for Joint Action of the —— Congregational Church and —— Congregational Society.

I.

Whenever the —— Church and Society shall be destitute of a settled Pastor and a new one is to be obtained, a joint Committee of the Church and Society, consisting of seven persons, of whom four shall be chosen by the Church and three by the Society, shall provide a supply for the pulpit, and take all necessary measures to that end. The Church shall have the right, in all cases, to select a Pastor (or Colleague Pastor, when it may be deemed expedient by the Church and Society to settle a Colleague Pastor), to be proposed to the Society for its concurrence. If said Society shall concur in said selection with the Church, a call shall be given by the Church and Society jointly, to the person selected; but if the Society do not concur in the selection, the Church shall select again, and so again, from time to time, until the Church and Society shall agree in a choice, and when so agreed, a call shall be given to the person so chosen, by the Church and Society as stated above; that is, jointly.

II.

The amount of salary to be given to the Pastor shall be fixed by the Society.

III.

Temporary supply of the pulpit, during the absence or sickness of the Pastor, shall be provided by the Pastor and Deacons of the Church, and the bills of necessary expenses incurred for that purpose shall be submitted to the Prudential Committee of the Society, and, when approved by them, shall be paid by the Treasurer. By the word "Church," hereinbefore used, is meant all male members of the Church in good and regular standing of the age of twenty-one years and upwards.

IV.

A Committee to regulate the matter of singing and of Church music shall be appointed jointly by the Church and Society (annually), three persons by the former, and two by the latter.

V.

No alteration shall be made in these rules, on the part of either Church or Society, unless the same shall be agreed to by two thirds of the members of each, present at special meetings, regularly notified for that purpose.

No. IX.

[Form of Result of such an Ordaining [or Installing] Council.

Pursuant to Letters-Missive, an Ecclesiastical Council assembled at —— in —— on —— at —— o'clock, ——, on request of the Congregational Church and Society in ——, for the purpose of examining Mr. A—— B——, whom they have invited to become their Pastor; and, if judged expedient, of ordaining [installing] him as such. The Council was composed of the following ministerial and lay delegates of the following churches, to wit: —

[Name them all.]

Organization was effected by the choice of —— Moderator, —— Scribe, [and —— Assistant Scribe,] and prayer was offered by the Moderator.

The papers covering the proceeding between the parties, thus far, were read, and found to be regular and satisfactory. The candidate presented ample testimonials of regular church standing, and of suitable training for the work on which he proposes to enter; and, on examination, was found to give good evidence of personal godliness, of intellectual and scholarly abilities, and of soundness in the faith once delivered to the saints, as our Congregational Churches are accustomed to count soundness.

The Council, being by themselves, voted to approve of the choice of the Church, and to coöperate with it in the settlement of Mr. A—— B——, as its Pastor, by extending to it, and to him, the fellowship of the Churches in that relation.

[State what arrangements were then made for the public service of ordination (or installation), with the minute of their due performance.]

No. XIII.

Form of Complaint against an offending member before a Church, the preliminary steps of discipline having proved ineffectual.

To the Congregational Church in ——.

Dear Brethren:

It has become our painful duty to bring to your notice the offence of a brother, and to ask you to deal with it according to the law of Christ. Having evidence of his guilt, and having failed — in the use of the first steps of Gospel discipline — to bring him to a better mind, we are compelled, in great sorrow of heart, and with the earnest prayer that the Great Head of the Church may bless this labor to the restoration of our erring brother, to make the following complaint against him.

We charge Brother A—— B—— with being guilty of the sin of ——; and particularly on the —— day of —— last [and at other times]; and of failing to give Christian satisfaction with regard to the same, in violation of his duty as a Christian, and of his covenant vows.

Brothers C—— D—— and E—— F—— are witnesses of the subject-matter of this complaint.

We respectfully ask you to entertain this charge, and to proceed to try the same, according to the rules of this Church, and the law of Christ.

Your brethren,

Committee of Discipline of the Congregational Church in ——.

No. XIV.

Form of Letter Missive for calling a Mutual Council to review and advise on a case of Church discipline.

To the Congregational Church in ——.

Dear Brethren:

In the exercise of its conception of its duty of Gospel discipline, this Church has been sadly led to cut off its offending Brother A—— B—— from its membership for the sin of ——, and for his refusal to make Christian satisfaction for the same. Being dissatisfied with the conclusion of the Church, he has requested us to join him in submitting the whole subject to the advisory review of a Council mutually called for that purpose, and we have voted to comply with his request.

This is, therefore, to desire you to join by your reverend Pastor and a delegate in an Ecclesiastical Council to be held on ——, at —— in ——, at —— o'clock, ——, to review the case, and advise all parties thereon.

Wishing you grace, mercy, and peace,

We are yours in the bonds of the Gospel,

The churches invited to sit in Council are the following: [Name all.]

[It should in all cases be remembered that the first duty of an ex-parte council after organization, always is to request the parties to accept it as a mutual council; and only after the refusal of that offer is the way open for it regularly to proceed to further business.]

No. XVI.

Form of Result of such a Council.

Pursuant to Letters Missive from the Congregational Church in —— [or, name the exact source of the letters], an Ecclesiastical Council [if Ex-parte, say so] convened at ——, on ——, for the purpose of [state the object as given in the Letters Missive]. It was organized by the choice of ——, Moderator; ——, Scribe; [and ——, Assistant Scribe.] After prayer by the Moderator, the parties calling the Council proceeded to lay before it the matters upon which its advice was desired.

[Here insert briefly the journal of proceedings, sessions, adjournments, etc., — shorn of all trivial matters, — until the result be reached.]

After the most patient, thorough, and prayerful examination which they have been able to give the matter submitted to them for action, the Council came [unanimously] to the following result.

Form of Result of an ordinary Dismissing Council.

[The general form may be like what would be suggested on the model of No. IX, modified to meet the case in its preliminaries, with the results of advising dismission, and with some such vital paragraph as this, to be the retiring Pastor's certificate of good standing, and his credentials to another field of labor.]

In coming to this result the Council are able to declare, with great satisfaction, that they have found nothing, in their investigation of the causes which have led to this dismission, to impair their confidence in the [essential] integrity of the Christian and ministerial character of the retiring Pastor, whom, accordingly, they hereby commend to the confidence of the churches as, in their judgment, an honest, faithful, and useful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, who carries with him their tender sympathies, and earnest prayers for his future prosperity in the work of the Lord, wherever Providence may assign his labors.

Form of Letter Missive for an Ex-parte Council to advise when difficulties exist between a Church and its Pastor, and he has unreasonably refused a Mutual Council.

Modify No. XIX, so as to read thus:—

Whereas, unhappily, a state of things exists among us which, in the judgment of a majority of this Church and Society, renders it expedient that the relation between us and our Pastor be dissolved, yet he declines to take action for such dissolution; and, as it seems to us unreasonably, refuses to submit the facts to a Mutual Council for advice, although such a Council has been asked for in the legal and usual manner, by the said Church and Society; we affectionately invite your attendance upon an Ex parte Council, by your pastor, etc.

No. XXI.

Form of Letter Missive for Advice toward the general adjustment of Difficulties existing in a Church.

The Congregational Church in —— to the Congregational Church in ——, sendeth greeting.

Dear Brethren:

Difficulties having arisen between the Pastor and some of the members of this Church [or between various members of this Church], for the adjustment of which we desire your Christian counsel; this is to request your attendance, by your reverend Pastor and a delegate, at —— on the —— of —— at —— o'clock in the ——, to advise us on the following points, viz.:

Form of Letter Missive calling a Council for the Deposition of a Pastor guilty of Heresy or Immorality.

in his position by advice of Council, the Church may ask him to join them in procuring the advice of a mutual Council, and, should he refuse, may summon one ex parte. The vital clause of the Letter Missive might be as follows:]

This Church having become painfully convinced that its Pastor has forfeited his ministerial character, by [state the cause], and should be deposed; and all preliminary steps having been orderly taken, both parties have agreed to unite in submitting the painful subject to the advice of a mutual Council; and you are affectionately invited to meet in Council for that purpose, on ——, at ——, etc. [Or the following:]

Whereas this Church has been sadly led to the conclusion that its Pastor has forfeited his ministerial character, by [state the cause], and should be deposed; and all preliminary steps having been orderly taken, has requested him to join it in submitting the case to the advice of a mutual Council, and he has unreasonably refused; this is to request your attendance by your reverend Pastor and a delegate in an ex-parte Council, to be held at ——, on ——, for the consideration of the facts, and the giving of such advice as the Great Head of the Church shall direct, in the premises.

No. XXIII.

Form of Result of Council deposing a Pastor.

[Extraordinary care should be taken to secure the utmost judicial fulness of hearing and fairness of trial, when, if convinced that no other course remains open, the Council may adopt some such minute as the following:]

Having fully, and in the kindest spirit, endeavored to weigh all the considerations alleged by the Pastor in his own defence, [or, having sought from the accused Pastor in vain any sufficient exculpation of himself from the grave charges which appear to have been proved against him,] and having implored special divine guidance, this Council feels itself painfully compelled to rest in the judgment that for [name the cause] he is unworthy of the Christian name, and should no longer be suffered to exercise the Christian ministry. They do therefore, in the fear of God, and for the good of souls, hereby advise the church to depose him from its pastorate; publicly withdraw from him the fellowship of the churches which was extended to him in the Council that ordained him; and warn all Christian people against him as one in whose Christian and ministerial character the churches which they represent have lost confidence, and for whom they decline all further responsibility.

No. XXIV.

Form of Letters Missive suitable for use in the process of Withdrawing Fellowship from an erring Congregational Church.

[Both the Cambridge Platform, and that published by the committee appointed by the Boston Council of 1865, lay down rules by which the fellowship extended by Congregational Churches to a new church may, should occasion unfortunately require, be recalled. The process by the "Boston Platform" is comprised in three steps, viz.: "Any Church" aggrieved by the fact that a sister church "deliberately receives and maintains doctrines which subvert the foundations of the Christian faith," or "that it wilfully tolerates and upholds notorious scandals," or "persistently disregards and contemns the communion of churches," may (1) fitly admonish that church; (2) and may call a Council to advise "concerning the acts and administrations" of that church; (3) that Council may advise the churches "to withhold from that erring church all acts of communion till it shall give evidence of reformation." —Boston Platform, pp. 56, 57. The Letter Missive might suitably be phrased thus:]

The Congregational Church in —— to the Congregational Church in ——, sendeth greeting:

Dear Brethren:

We have for some time been deeply grieved by the fact that our sister church, the Congregational Church in ——, appears deliberately to have received and to maintain doctrines which seem to us subversive of the foundations of the Christian faith, [or name other grievances, as contemplated in the Platform.] Acting upon our Christian liberty, and incited thereto by our deep sense of responsibility for the public fellowship which, in common with other Congregational Churches, we hold with them, and by our solicitude for the general cause of Christ, we addressed to them on the ——, of —— last, a fraternal admonition. Failing satisfactory response, and deeply convinced that the best interests of all demand further action, we do now affectionately invite you to assemble with other sister churches, in Council at ——, on ——, etc., to consider the facts in the case, and decide whether it be not the duty of such a Council to advise the churches to withhold from the —— Church all acts of Church communion, till it shall give evidence of reformation.

Wishing you grace, mercy, and peace,
We are, etc.

[Name all the churches invited to sit in Council.]

No. XXV.

Form of Result of such a Council, advising the withdrawal of Fellowship from an apostate Congregational Church.

[Such a Council having assembled, and with patient kindness vainly sought for satisfaction from the church which has given offence, with the result of being driven to the conclusion that the said church is not now in reality a Congregational Church, and ought no longer to be fellowshipped as such, might phrase its result properly thus:]

We hereby declare to the churches whose representatives we are, and by whose commission we entered on this investigation, that we find the —— Church, after all our fraternal labor, to persist in [here name the ground or grounds of offence]: and — while cheerfully recognizing the right of that church, should it resume its independency, to manage its affairs according to its own sense of right, without interference from without — we judge it a thing inconsistent and intolerable, that, in virtue of the Congregational fellowship formerly given it, it should now make Congregationalism responsible for that with which it has and properly can have no sympathy. We do therefore advise those churches, and all Congregational Churches with whom our judgment may have influence, by special vote to withhold from that erring church in —— all acts of communion till it shall give evidence of reformation.

No. XXVI.

Form of Letter Missive for a Council to advise with reference to the Dissolution of a Congregational Church.

[Adapt to the ordinary form of calling a Council the following clause as defining its object.]

Whereas, in the Providence of God, the members [or a majority of the members] of the Congregational Church in —— have been led to conclude that the best good of the cause of Christ would be promoted by the dissolution of this Church as a separate organization, and the association of its members with other church organizations; and whereas, having been originally formed on the concurrent advice of the Congregational Churches of the neighborhood, it is fitting that their counsel be taken before it be disbanded, this is affectionately to request your attendance by your reverend Pastor and a delegate at ——, on ——, etc., to consider the facts and advise us in these premises, etc.

No. XXVII.

Result of such a Council advising the Disbandment of a Church.

The usual course has been, the Council favoring the disbanding, to recommend the Church to vote to dissolve, and advise it to give authority to its Clerk [or a special committee] to grant to all its members letters of dismission to other churches, after limiting the time during which they must be taken, and used.

No. XXVIII.

Form of Letter suitable to be given by the Clerk [or Committee] of a Church to its Members when it has voted to dissolve.

To the Congregational Church in ———.
Greeting:

Whereas, the Providence of God has made it necessary — in the judgment of its members — for the Congregational Church in ——— to cease to exist; and whereas, after advice of Council, it has unanimously voted that its existence, as a separate branch of Christ's body, shall cease, whenever its members shall all have been received into the fellowship of those churches to which they are respectively commended, as in good and regular standing; this is to certify you that the bearer, Brother [or Sister] ——— is thus commended to your Christian care and fellowship.

(Signed)
[Clerk, or Committee.]

The compiler of these Vital Statistics will be much obliged to the friends of all deceased Congregational ministers if they will give him very early notice of the fact and date of their death, with full and exact memoranda, that none may fail of their place in this record in future years. He may be addressed at Billerica, Mass.

HENRY A. HAZEN.

WHAT THEY SAID IN 1698.

"SOME make as if New England were already as sinful as sinful can be; as bad, as bad can be. To which I reply, I have no design to speak diminutively of the Sins of the Countrey; I do acknowledge with grief, and shame, that they have been, and are very horrible; yet I think such Sayings are not justifyable in any. Some well-meaning holy men, being of dark melancholly Spirits, and little acquainted with the advances that Atheism, Idolatry, Superstition, Prophaneness, Iniquity and Sensuality have made in other professing parts of the World are apt to think so, and in their indignation against sin & sinners to say so. But the truth is, Though we have cause to abhor our selves for being so bad as we are; and to meditate all ways possible to grow better; yet it cannot with truth be asserted that we are as bad as bad can be; for there is real danger of growing worse.

"There are other designing persons, that are no great friends to holiness and righteousness, that are of a vulture Spirit, that fly hastily over all the fair meadows and fields without eying of them; that they may pitch and prey upon some Carrion. These find nothing but faults in the Government, Churches, Ministers, and Good people of all ranks: & Sport themselves with the falls of here and there an Eminent Professor; or the infirmities, & real, or supposed mistakes of men much better than themselves. . . . All I shall say to this latter sort is: That I have no design to justify ourselves; Shame, and blushing, and confusion of face belongeth to us: for we are sinners. Yet if a comparative goodness would serve our turn (as it will not) we might possibly pass in this degenerate Age." — NICHOLAS NOYES, Massachusetts Election Sermon (1698), p. 57.

DISABLED MINISTERS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

At the meeting of the National Council of 1877, held in Detroit, an overture from the Ohio Conference, in reference to disabled ministers and their families, was presented, favorably received, and referred to a committee, which reported, recommending, —

First. That each State have an organization of its own to solicit funds from churches, and from individuals within its bounds, to be applied for this purpose.

Second. That a committee be appointed to issue a circular unto this end to stimulate, in all practicable ways, the ministration of needed relief, and to present their doings, with recommendations, to the next Triennial Council.

The undersigned, therefore, constituting this committee, make appeal to the churches, especially to the State Conferences and Associations, to give the matter their earliest attention.

Many true and devoted ministers of Christ, through age or infirmity, have been laid aside from work, and left, with their families, under the pressure of great want. These men have wrought hard and long, and some of them with large success. They have been employed mostly by the smaller churches, or in doing pioneer work. Their income has been meagre, and their years have been full of self-denial.

The churches all over the land should devise some means by which substantial relief shall be afforded to these persons, so that no minister or minister's widow, or orphan children, shall be left to suffer, as many do.

This duty seems to have been long recognized; for as early as 1748, the records of the Connecticut Colony show that application was made to the General Assembly for the relief of certain ministers of that colony.

In 1786 we find traces of an organized effort, on the part of the Congregationalists of New England, in the same direction. Various societies were afterwards formed in the New England States. In Illinois an organization was effected in 1857; in Minnesota, in 1860; in Missouri, in 1867; in Massachusetts, in 1869; in California, in 1873; in Wisconsin, in 1876; in New York, in 1878.

The General Association of Connecticut took up the matter in 1863, began the collection of funds in 1864, and has wrought most efficiently ever since, raising and distributing, in these thirteen years, above thirty thousand dollars.

This cause in the State of Connecticut has endeared itself to the churches, — "is no longer an experiment, but may be considered a permanent institution." The same can, and ought, to be accomplished in all the States. No minister — no ministers's family — should be allowed to suffer.

It seems to the committee practicable and eminently desirable that each State should effect an organization; they urge this, and they recommend that the matter be taken up at the next annual meeting; that some one be appointed to give facts regarding the demand for such societies, together with the results attending them, where they have been formed, and that a constitution, somewhat as follows, be adopted: —

First. This society shall be called the ——— Relief Society, inserting the name of the State in the blank.

Second. Its object shall be to furnish aid to disabled ministers and their families.

Third. Its officers shall be a secretary, a treasurer, and a board of trustees, — the secretary to plan for the raising of funds, and to be, ex-officio, a member of the board of trustees. It shall be the duty of the trustees to disburse the funds, and make a detailed annual statement to the Conference.

Some such plan, it is thought, will commend itself to all, and if entered upon heartily, will prove a success.

The churches will not fail to respond when the claims of these suffering servants of the Master are presented to them.

Men and women of abundance will be glad to relieve those who, "having ministered in holy things, and often aided and blessed others, are now in want themselves."

This surely is duty and privilege. And "if the heavenly Master judges His people according to the kindness they show to the 'least' of His servants, He will not overlook the shortcomings of such as leave to cold neglect those brethren who, through the sunshine and the storms of life, have stood as faithful watchmen on the walls of the city of God."

Will not the moderator, or the registrar, or some member of each State body, secure State action at the next annual meeting?

Information as to the working of such societies can be found in the "History of the Fund for Ministers," copies of which can be secured by application to the chairman of this committee, who invites personal correspondence in regard to the subject, and who will be glad to render any assistance in his power.

DECLARATION OF THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH.

[Adopted by the Council in 1871.]

The members of the National Council, representing the Congregational churches of the United States, avail themselves of this opportunity to renew their previous declarations of faith in the unity of the church of God.

While affirming the liberty of our churches, as taught in the New Testament, and inherited by us from our fathers, and from martyrs and confessors of foregoing ages, we adhere to this liberty all the more as affording the ground and hope of a more visible unity in time to come. We desire and purpose to co-operate with all the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ.

In the expression of the same catholic sentiments solemnly avowed by the Council of 1865, on the Burial Hill at Plymouth, we wish, at this new epoch of our history, to remove, so far as in us lies, all causes of suspicion and alienation, and to promote the growing unity of counsel and of effort among the followers of Christ. To us, as to our brethren, "There is one body and one spirit, even as we are called in one hope of our calling."

As little as did our fathers in their day, do we in ours, make a pretension to be the only churches of Christ. We find ourselves consulting and acting together under the distinctive name of Congregationalists, because, in the present condition of our common Christianity, we have felt ourselves called to ascertain and do our own appropriate part of the work of Christ's church among men.

We especially desire, in prosecuting the common work of evangelizing our own land and the world, to observe the common and sacred law, that in the wide field of the world's evangelization, we do our work in friendly co-operation with all those who love and serve our common Lord.

We believe in "the Holy Catholic Church." It is our prayer and endeavor that the unity of the Church may be more and more apparent, and that the prayer of our Lord for his disciples may be speedily and completely answered, and all be one; that, by consequence of this Christian unity in love, the world may believe in Christ as sent of the Father to save the world.

THE ANNUAL STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

At the session of the National Council held in 1877, it was unanimously

"Resolved, That an annual compilation of the statistics of our churches throughout the country, and especially an accurate and complete list of ministers in fellowship, should be published under the sanction of this Council."

The following pages contain the statistics as collected in 1878 by the Statistical Secretaries of the several State organizations, and compiled for this publication by the Secretary of the National Council, under vote of the Publishing Committee appointed by the Council.

The Secretary, as heretofore, in no case presumes to insert or omit the name of church or minister on any authority but that of the State Secretaries, representing their own organizations, or of subsequent Councils.

The contents of the statistics are as follows: —

1. The Statistics of the Churches and Pastors, by States.
2. List of Foreign Missionaries, arranged by Missions.
3. List of Ministers without Pastoral Charge, by States.
4. General Summary Tables for the year.
5. Tables of Summaries, 1858–1879.
6. Remarks upon the Statistics.
7. The National and State Organizations of the Churches; with officers, and dates of sessions in 1879.
8. Alphabetical List of Ministers, with P. O. address, and indexed to pages.
9. Alphabetical List of Licentiates.

RULES OF COMPILATION.

1. To arrange in alphabetical order everything capable of it; except that the churches in any one town or city are placed according to age.

2. To make each State list conform strictly to the State boundaries. Churches or ministers reported by the Association of a State other than their own are, therefore, transferred to their proper places; and the summaries are correspondingly corrected.

3. To make new tables each year. "Last year's report" (if known to be such) is always omitted. No allowance is made for the membership of any non-reporting church or Sunday school, except such as is made by the State Secretaries, who are the proper judges of its propriety. The list of churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations are mentioned with the State summary, so that each church can be traced from year to year.

4. To examine carefully all the tables, with a view to correction or addition by correspondence, especially to correct "pastoral supply" to the latest moment. Proof-sheets have been sent to all the Secretaries who could be reached in season. But no such changes have been allowed to affect the summaries.

5. To complete the statistics by (1) giving in some form every statistical fact obtainable, — items given by some States, but not by all, being aggregated with the respective State summaries; and (2) putting into finished State and general summaries, with "totals" in all cases, everything capable of it; so that no person in search of any statistical fact shall be obliged to perform any arithmetical calculation to find it.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS.

1. Any church given in brackets is one organized since the date of State report; not included in the summary, but inserted for information. A few churches temporarily not associated are inserted by their own wish.

2. Installed pastors are marked "p"; others in service are not marked. Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

3. Post-office addresses of ministers in pastoral service are not found in the tables of churches, but in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers.

4. The two columns following the names of ministers in the tables of churches denote (1) the year of ordination, (2) the year when the minister was installed, or commenced service with that church.

5. A star (*) prefixed to the name of a minister in pastoral service, not installed, implies that he is not a member of any organization of churches or ministers in that State; but not many States so designate in the tables. A star similarly prefixed in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers denotes that he is found in the original State alphabetical list, but is reported not to be a member of any such organization in the United States; or, that he is found supplying some church, but is not in the State alphabetical list.

6. Licentiates are not reckoned as ministers. Churches supplied by such, or by ministers of other denominations, are reckoned as vacant; but the number of such churches is given with each State summary. No ministers of other denominations (if so known) are inserted in the General Alphabetical List, unless they happen to belong to the two denominations at once.

7. The names of some Congregational ministers are, doubtless, missing; but it is solely because, by their not being members of any organization of churches or ministers, there was nobody to report them.

8. Under "Church Members," "Absent" are included in "Males," "Females," and "Total." "Additions," "Removals," and "Baptisms" cover the twelve months next preceding the date of report given with the name of each State.

9. Blanks in any column of figures are such as were so left in the State Minutes. They ought always to signify "no report," but some States do not follow the proper rule of inserting a cipher where "none" is meant, and the examiner must decide, in any given case, whether "none" or "no report" is intended. In our General Summaries, a blank invariably signifies "no report."

* This list is made from the reports of the several State organizations. and is supposed to include only members of some organization of ministers or churches. A few not members (but inserted on authority from the States) are starred. The figures against names denote the year of ordination, which some States do not furnish. The (contracted) name of a State (in brackets) against any person's name denotes that he is reported by such State and not by the one where he resides.

NOTE.—1. The Foreign Missionaries are not included in the "total ministers."

2. Most of the churches "not supplied" have regular public worship, but no one minister engaged for continuous service. Many are in the interval between pastorates.

3. Most of the "acting pastors" are practically the same as "pastors," the difference being in the omission of formal installation.

4. The number of ministers "not in pastoral work" includes (with a few authorized exceptions) only those who are members of some Association or Conference. When persons not thus members cease to be in pastoral service, they necessarily cease to be reported.

5. Blanks signify "no report."

NOTES. — 1. The "total" church members above, in several States, and therefore in the general total, exceeds the sum of "males" and "females," because some churches report the total without mentioning the particulars whose sum makes it; but the relative proportion is not affected.

2. "Absent" denotes persons who live at a place other than that of their church relation, and do not worship with their church.

3. The removals by "discipline" sometimes include the number of persons whose names are dropped from the church lists on account of long absence.

4. The churches making no reports are included in the Summaries; a past report of membership is included if so done by the State reports, but no estimate is made of "additions," etc.

5. Blanks in the above table denote "no report."

6. The column for "families" is inserted for the second time only, and is quite incomplete.

NOTES. — 1. The distinction is made between contributions for benevolent purposes and moneys raised for any home expenses. For instance, money given to the general Sabbath School cause is benevolent; money expended by a church in supporting its own Sabbath School is a home expenditure, as much as a pastor's salary.

2. The amount of Home Expenditure does not mean all that is spent in a given place, but solely what is raised by a church itself, exclusive of all outside aid.

3. The amounts reported above for the specific objects of benevolence are such as are reported by the State organizations, and are extremely below the facts. They are inserted as indicating proportions, but are not worth adding up. It should be noted that in some States the sums were amounts contributed to a particular society; in others, for causes represented by that society, — a distinction which we cannot preserve this year. Some States so group objects that some items cannot be distinguished.

4. It will be seen that the reports are very imperfect. Out of 3,620 churches, only 2,760 report "Benevolent Contributions," and only 1,696 report their "Home Expenditures."

NOTE.—Only nine States reported the items for this important table. For those defective under the columns of "Ministers," the figures are made up from the various Minutes, the Quarterly, and other sources, in which case the year is assumed to end with the month next preceding the annual meetings of the respective State organizations. But the columns of "deaths" are made to conform to Rev. Mr. Hazen's list, as given in this issue, and not to the several Minutes.

Lists of new and dropped churches are given with the Summary of each State.

The gains marked "a" above are only gain in reports, being gain over "no report" last year. The losses marked "b" are, similarly, loss by such as reported last year, but make no report this year.

Blanks signify no report, and our necessary ignorance.

c. New Hampshire gain in Contributions is over a report of seven months in the previous year.

The total of MEMBERS is greater than the sum of males and females, and total additions and removals are sometimes greater than the sum of particulars, because totals are sometimes reported alone. The proportion of males and females is, however, correct. "Absent" are included in males, females, and total.

As to "Contributions" and "Home Expenditures," in this table, it will be seen that it is more an exhibit of the number of churches reporting than of totals raised. Before the issue of 1867, one half of the churches did not report either item; many States did not have the item in their schedules.

In this table, the "new" churches are occasionally such as were previously "dropped."

Under "Died" (Ministers), until 1873 no count was kept to distinguish between "acting pastors" and "without charge." The difference between "pastors" and "totals" includes these two classes. The fluctuations under "Benevolent Contributions" are greatly due to more or less full reports. See the annual number of churches reporting, in table next above.

REMARKS UPON THE STATISTICS.

The improved style in which the statistics were last year printed in connection with the Minutes of the National Council, is continued in this issue. Much labor has been expended in obtaining missing first names of ministers (so important in identifying persons through a series of years) and years of ordination.

STATES.—There is no change in the list of forty-two States and Territories upon our list.

The number of Churches.—Summary VI. gives the number of churches added annually, and number annually dropped, during the last thirteen years. It is noticeable that the former averages precisely 131, and the latter precisely 62. In the thirteen years, 1,703 churches have been added, and 806 dropped. There is no reason to expect any material change in the rate of progress for the next few years, and an average net gain of 60 to 70 churches annually will need to be provided for,—which necessitates not only more ministers, but doubtless also more missionary help in money. During the year now reported, the net increase of churches has been in the following sections: New England, 6; the northern States thence west to the Mississippi, 6; the States thence westward, not including the Pacific, 30; the Pacific, 10; the southern States, 4.

Church Members.—The net increase is somewhat less than printed in 1877 and 1878, but greater than in any year of the ten next preceding. Massachusetts makes by far the largest gain.

Additions by Profession.—A little less than printed in 1877 and 1878, but greater than in either of the sixteen years next preceding.

Sabbath Schools.—A large increase, widely distributed.

Benevolent Contributions.—Summary V. shows a decided decrease,—the third year of a growing diminution. See Summary VI.

Home Expenditures.—An increase, but only apparent. Had New Hampshire reported last year (it did this year), the total decrease would have been over $130,000.

The number of ministers ordained without installation is still in excess of those ordained pastors, but less so than usual.

The number of ministers seems to have increased by 90, but the increase is entirely of those without pastoral charge. In the twenty-one years of our tables, the number of ministers has increased by 1,146, but the number of installed pastors is less now than it was twenty-one years ago.

Of the number of ministers not in pastoral service,—although the reports of occupation are quite imperfect,—some are accounted for as follows:—

Connected with education, general or professional: Presidents of Colleges, 22; Professors, 69; others with Colleges or Seminaries, 7; Principals of Academies and teachers, 32; State Superintendents, 3; City Superintendent of Schools, 1. Total, 134.

Connected with the national and other benevolent societies, as secretaries, superintendents, etc., 60.

In missionary and similar work: Chaplains U. S. A., 2; evangelists, 7; colporteurs, city missionaries, officers of asylums, etc., 25. Total, 34.

Editors, 22.

In secular work: Literary, 9; government offices, 5; librarians, 4; lawyer, 1; physicians, 5; in business or agriculture, 43. Total, 67.

Retired by age or infirmities, 152.

The above items make an aggregate of 469. The numbers of persons engaged in secular business, and of those retired, are doubtless too small. An examination of the lists shows at least a hundred more within the knowledge of the compiler, who are practically retired.

The Secretary reiterates his urgent hope that the few States which omit the first names of ministers, or years of ordination, will gratify many seekers for information by remedying this evil the current year. If they knew the great liability to error it causes to examiners, they would not hesitate.

LIST OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES

REPORTED BY THE SEVERAL STATE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected, by correspondence with their Secretaries, to the latest possible date.

The latest known post-office addresses are given, and the figures refer to pages (paged at the bottom), where the names will be found. Some names have two references. Any such case is due to the impossibility, for lack of time, to settle a discrepancy reported in the same month.

Names starred (*) are of persons who, although mentioned (usually as supplying churches), are reported to be members of no organization of Congregational churches as ministers.

Licentiates are not included in this list, nor are ministers of other denominations. A list of licentiates will be found following.

The compiler is painfully convinced of some errors in first names, initials, and spelling. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy; but efforts failing, the compiler has not ventured to follow his own convictions, against the unmistakable testimony of the reports.

LIST OF LICENTIATES REPORTED.

THIS list contains the names of those apparently reported as under care, with references to the pages where any such are mentioned as supplying churches. It does not include any others, although supplying churches, inasmuch as there is nothing to show that such others are under care of any Congregational organization.

Further, 1. This list does not agree with the number given in Summary I., because all ordained since the lists were reported are here dropped. 2. The post-office addresses are often delusive, the place being that of temporary service only. 3. Names followed by State only, are of persons approved in the State mentioned, no residence being reported. 4. The list is incomplete, because some States make no full report of Licentiates. 5. The contracted name of a State, in brackets, means that the name was reported by that State, although the person resides in another State.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL,

CONTAINING A NEW SELECTION OF

Hymns, Tunes, and Chants for Use in Public Worship, and also Selections from the Psalter for Responsive Readings.

EDITED BY REV. MESSRS.

E. P. PARKER. N. J. BURTON. J. H. TWICHELL.

HARTFORD, CONN.

It is one of the choicest selections of hymns ever made.—The Chicago Advance.

The Christian Hymnal is a characteristic production, and one in every way creditable to its editors. The average character of the music and hymns is very high.—The Independent.

We unreservedly commend this volume to the attention of all those churches and individuals who can be in any way satisfied with a less bulky and more choice collection of music than is at present in common use.—Religious Herald, Hartford.

It is the best Congregational Hymnal we have seen.—Hartford Courant.

You certainly have the brightest jewels of the devotional hymns in your book.—Rev. Henry Hopkins, Westfield, Mass.

I have looked it through quite carefully and with much interest, and think you have been exceedingly successful in your selections.—Henry Wilson, Organist of Park Church, Hartford, and formerly of Christ Church, Hartford.

The compilers seem to have kept nearly all that is valuable or suitable for Public Worship, in a surprisingly small collection.—B. P. Learned, Director of Music at Park Church, Norwich.

I have carefully examined "The Christian Hymnal," and will say emphatically that in my judgment it is the best collection of hymns and tunes published in this country.—Irving Emerson, Organist of Christ Church, Hartford.

GANNETT INSTITUTE,

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

69 CHESTER SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

Rev. GEORGE GANNETT, A. M. - - - Principal.

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS.—It has one of the most beautiful and desirable locations in the city. The buildings were erected expressly for the purposes of the Institute, on the most approved plan of architecture and interior arrangement The entire establishment is heated with steam, and has all the modern conveniences.

ORGANIZATION.—It was organized twenty-four years since, and its plan from the beginning has been eminently liberal and comprehensive.

DEPARTMENTS.—It has three departments, the Preparatory, Intermediate, and the Senior. Thoroughness in character and methods of instruction characterizes each. The Senior Department embraces a four years' course, which includes the Higher Mathematics, History, Philosophy, the Sciences, Ancient and Modern Languages, Art Studies, and the various Literatures.

A PARTIAL course may be taken, or a selection of studies is permitted.

DIPLOMAS are awarded to those who shall have honorably completed the prescribed course, and have attained the age of eighteen years.

TEACHERS AND PROFESSORS.—In every department such teachers and professors only are employed as have been enriched by years of eminent success in their work; and so large is the board of instruction, in proportion to the number of pupils, that an unusual division of labor is secured.

LIBRARIES.—A library of several thousand volumes, and a large and valuable Art Library, afford every incentive to reading, study and research, outside of the text-books.

A HOME is found here for twenty-five young ladies and six of the lady teachers, who constitute a family of refining intimacies and social culture.

A LECTURE COURSE.—From eighty to one hundred lectures, upon History, Literature, Philosophy, Science and Art, are given annually, not to displace, but to supplement the class-room training.

DRAWING AND PAINTING.—In this department, a resident lady teacher, of well-known ability, is occupied during all the school hours. The Studio is filled with casts, natural and artificial objects, as well as flats.

In FRENCH, GERMAN, AND ITALIAN, native teachers are employed, and a competent American lady superintends the class-room work.

The Academy continues to fit boys thoroughly and systematically, in large classes, and under an experienced faculty, for the various colleges. The English department is also well organized and equipped for scientific and general studies.

The character of the circulation of the Year-Book makes it proper for the Academy to invite to itself in this card the attention of Christian ministers, a class always interested in education, and most frequently consulted as to the best schools. Clergymen have been educated here in exceptionally large numbers, and many ministers and missionaries are among its present patrons. The close vicinity of the Theological Seminary and the Abbott Academy for young ladies influences many parents in the choice of this school for their sons. Expenses may be kept within moderate limits, and pecuniary aid is open to pupils of superior merit who could not otherwise secure an education. Address the Principal.

ABBOTT ACADEMY,

ANDOVER, MASS.

ABBOTT ACADEMY is the oldest incorporated Academy (exclusively for girls) in this State, if not in New England. Incorporated January 9, and opened May 6, 1829.

The course of study covers four years, and embraces all the usual academical studies, special attention being given to Mental and Moral Philosophy, English and General Literature, the History of Art, and to the Latin, French, and German Languages. Superior advantages are afforded in Music, Drawing, Painting, and Elocution.

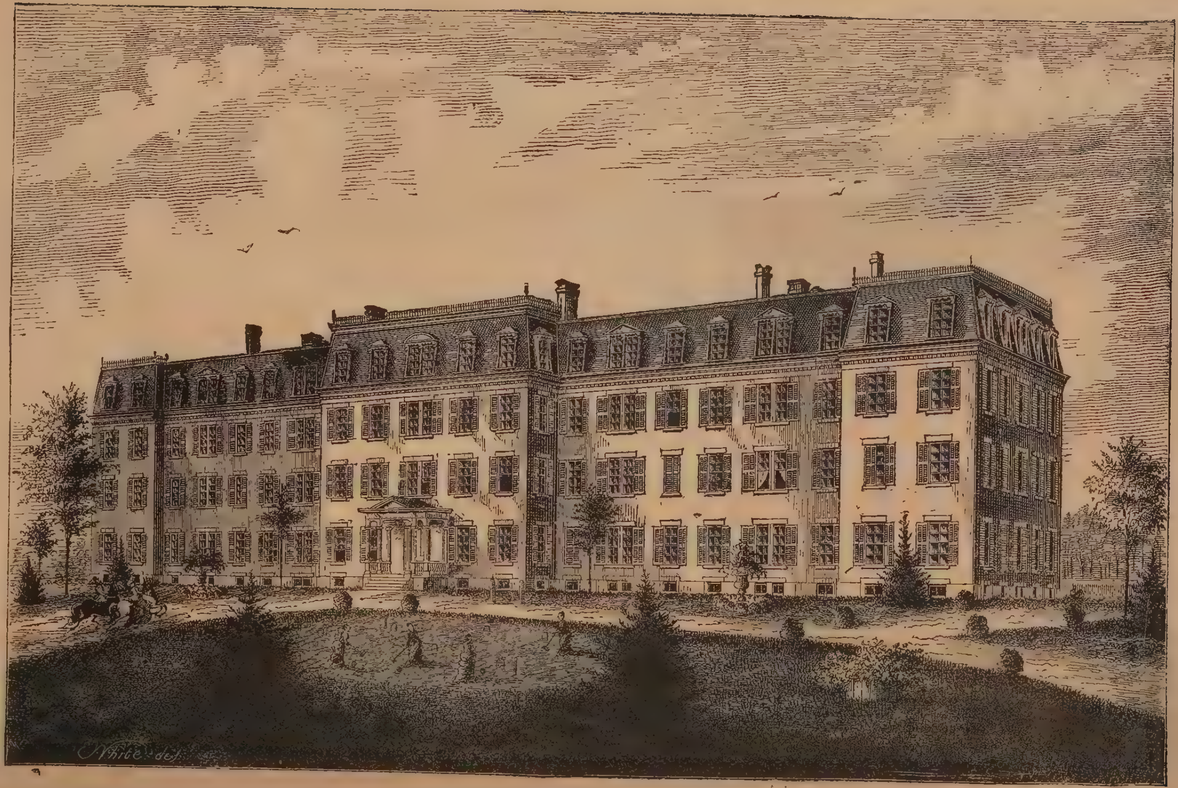
This Academy enjoys many incidental advantages through other literary institutions, — The Theological Seminary and Phillips Academy, in the same village, while easy access to Boston and Cambridge brings within its reach fine Music, Art Galleries, Museums, Cabinets, and the Botanical Garden, to all of which classes, with their teachers, have occasional access. The Academy has a fine Clark Telescope, good working cabinets, models, and apparatus of its own.

The domestic arrangements are peculiarly homelike The school is divided into three separate families in separate houses, each under its own matron and teachers. One of these families is made up wholly of pupils in French, in which language the daily table-talk is carried on under the direction of the French teacher. Another family is occupied with German in like manner. The grounds are spacious and tasteful, forming an attractive part of the quiet and pleasant village.

The school has been successfully conducted for nearly twenty years by the same principal teachers, whose constant endeavor is to so educate girls that they may mature into healthful, cultivated, earnest, Christian womanhood.

The total expenses for board, including fuel, lights, and washing, and for tuition, except music and drawing, is $300 per annum.

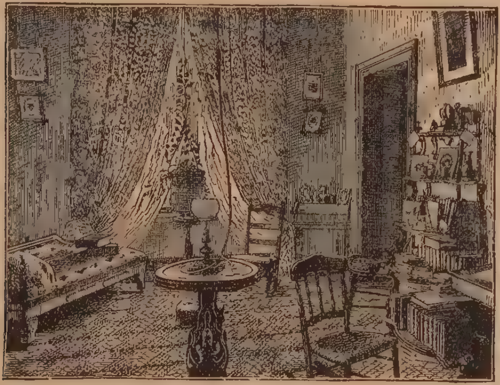
The Semi-Centennial of the Academy is to be celebrated next June, when, it is hoped, old scholars will be gathered from far and near to enjoy together a most interesting reunion. Meanwhile both a history and a catalogue of the school, for the half-century now closing, are in preparation. Any items of information as to the change of residence, marriage, or death of former pupils not yet reported are earnestly solicited. Reminiscences of school days here will also be extremely welcome. Such communications, also applications for information or for admission to the school, should be addressed to MISS PHILENA MCKEEN, Principal.



Miss ANNIE E. JOHNSON, Principal. BRADFORD ACADEMY. BRADFORD, MASS.

BRADFORD ACADEMY,

FOR YOUNG LADIES.



PARLOR OF A SUITE.

BRADFORD, MASS.

Bradford Academy is the oldest Seminary for young ladies, in the country. Founded in 1803, and incorporated in 1804, it has been in successful operation ever since.

Bradford is on the line of the Boston and Maine Railroad, thirty miles from Boston. The situation is elevated, overlooking the city of Haverhill, across the river Merrimac, and commanding broad views on every side. The air is fresh and invigorating, and the healthfulness of the location has been abundantly proved during the past years of the school.

The building is of brick, four stories high, in the form of a cross, wide corridors extending from east to west, and affording healthful promenades in inclement weather. A parlor and two bedrooms constitute a suite of rooms for four pupils. These rooms are eleven and twelve feet high, and receive a full supply of air and sunlight. The school hall, recitation and music rooms, library, reading-room, gymnasium, parlors, dining-room, rooms for business, bathing-rooms, and closets, are all ordered on a generous scale for convenience, health, and comfort. The entire building is heated by steam and lighted with gas, and supplied with an abundance of pure water. No efforts are spared to make this a model establishment.

Board and tuition, $320.00 per year. Music, Drawing, and Painting, xtra.

Applications for circulars, and for admission, may be made to Miss Annie E. Johnson, Principal, Bradford, Mass.

OBERLIN COLLEGE,

OBERLIN, OHIO,

Embraces the following Departments.

I. DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY.
II. DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE ARTS.
III. DEPARTMENT OF PREPARATORY INSTRUCTION.
IV. CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

DEPARTMENT I. Instruction is given by the following Professors and Teachers:—

JAMES H. FAIRCHILD, Pres. Systematic Theology.
ELIJAH P. BARROWS, Old Test. Lit. and Theology.
JUDSON SMITH, Church Hist. and Positive Instit'ns.
JOHN MORGAN, New Test. Lit. and Theology,

W. B. CHAMBERLAIN, Teacher of Elocution.
HENRY COWLES, Lec'r on Biblical Intro'n.
A. HASTINGS ROSS, Lecturer on Congregational Church Polity.

Students have commodious, furnished rooms in the new and attractive building, COUNCIL HALL, which is devoted exclusively to the uses of this Department. They have free access to all the classes, libraries, and cabinets of the other Departments. Fifteen weeks during the summer can be spent in Home Missionary or other labor, with compensation, without interference with studies. The demand for such labor is greater than the supply. During the last half of the course the students have frequent opportunities to supply the neighboring churches, and there is a constant demand for remunerative teaching in the Preparatory Schools. Students who need pecuniary assistance receive the usual aid from the American Education Society and from special funds under the control of the Seminary, enough in all cases to relieve them from embarrassment in pursuing their studies.

DEPARTMENT II. Comprises (1) the Classical and Scientific Course, and (2) the Literary Course. The former embraces the studies of our best colleges, so arranged that after the Freshman year the student may, by elective studies, give a classical or scientific character to his course, receiving the degree of A. B. at its close. For entrance, three years of Latin, two of Greek, and one term of Geometry are necessary. The Literary Course is like the above, only no Greek and less Latin is required. Nine professors and four other teachers give instruction in this Department.

DEPARTMENT III. Comprises a Classical School and an English School, each with its Principal and Tutors. Thirty or more teachers, selected from the advanced students in the higher departments, give instruction in these Schools.

DEPARTMENT IV. In the Conservatory of Music one Professor and seven Instructors give thorough training in the Theory of Music, Piano, Organ and Violin, and Vocal Music.

Expenses in all Departments for Tuition, incidentals, and board are very low. The Spring Term begins Tuesday, March 11, 1879. Fall Term begins Tuesday, Sept. 2. Winter Term begins Tuesday, Dec. 2.

MAPLEWOOD INSTITUTE,

PITTSFIELD, MASS.

This Institution for Young Ladies commenced its thirty-eighth year with an added principal, an enlargement of its plans, a reduction of its charges, and such an increase of its attendance as to fill all its rooms.

COURSES OF STUDY.

Its aim is to give a thorough elementary training in Literature, Science, and Art, having preparatory, collegiate, and optional courses of study, with accomplished instructors and ample cabinets and apparatus.

It also affords rare facilities for the study of music, giving a diploma to pupils completing its course of study in that department.

It will prepare students to pass the Harvard examination for women, also to enter any of the recently established colleges for women, and any others which admit female students.

LOCATION AND CHARGES.

To very many former pupils and friends of the school in all parts of the country, its most attractive and salubrious location is well known; and its former facilities for the health and physical culture of its pupils, as well as their social and moral education, will be carefully maintained.

The charge for board and English tuition is now reduced to $80 for each of its three annual terms, and a still further reduction is made to daughters of clergymen and pupils preparing to teach.

For further information either of the Principals, REV. C. V. SPEAR or REV. R. E. AVERY, may be addressed.

SUMMER BOARD.

One of the buildings is specially fitted for summer boarders during the long vacation, when the grounds and the surrounding region make it a most delightful summer resort. Under skilful management the rooms have been filled for several seasons; and a large wing is now in course of erection, designed to add to the facilities of the place both for summer boarders and in the months of the school year for pupils.

TILDEN LADIES' SEMINARY.

This institution is delightfully located in West Lebanon, N. H., opposite White River Junction, Vt., on the hillside overlooking the Connecticut Valley. It is easily accessible by railroad and telegraph, from all parts of the country. The building and grounds are spacious, and well adapted to their purpose. The public and private rooms are tastefully furnished. It has a choice library of 1,400 volumes, and a good apparatus and cabinet.

This Seminary is a Home School especially adapted to ladies, where they enjoy protection and every advantage of refined social life.

The Course of Study is extensive and thorough, embracing the elementary and higher English, Latin, French, German, Italian, and Greek, and a full course in Music, Drawing, and Painting.

The Board of Instruction is large, permanent, and efficient. The Principal has been at the head of a first-class ladies' seminary for twenty-four years, of this seminary for fourteen years, and his experience as a practical teacher and school manager covers a period of forty years.

The school is religious, but unsectarian. It inculcates the pure principles of moral and religious truth, but ignores the dogmas.

The expenses are less than at any other school of the same grade, in the nation, and still a liberal discount is made to clergymen and to worthy but dependent young ladies who are struggling to secure an education.

If you have daughters to educate, please correspond with HIRAM ORCUTT, A. M., Principal, West Lebanon, N. H.

Summer Session begins March 28; Fall Session, Sept. 15, 1879.

OBJECT.

This institution secures the advantages of education to the colored race, but is open to all students, irrespective of race or sex. It can accommodate 500 students, at a very cheap rate of expense.

DEPARTMENTS.

It has an Academic Department, embracing, a, The Model School Course of three years in the elementary English branches (students completing this course are prepared to begin either of the three following); b, The Normal Course of three years, adapted to those who have the work of teaching in view; c, The Literary Course of four years, designed to furnish a good practical education for those who are unable to take the full college curriculum; d, The Classical Preparatory Course of three years; and e, The Classical College Course of four years.

It has also three Professional Departments,—Law, Medicine, and Theology. The two latter are especially flourishing. The Medical Department is under the charge of an able faculty, is the cheapest medical school in the land, and has access to a large national hospital on its grounds. The majority of its students are white. The Theological Course is adapted to the peculiar wants and future work of the students, and gives a regular or a special course. Its faculty and students represent several denominations; but it is supported by the American Missionary Association, and by the Presbytery of Washington.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, $12.00 per year for the Academic course. Room rent the same. No charge to theological students for tuition or room rent. Rooms are furnished, but students provide their own bedding (except mattress), towels, crockery, fuel, and light. Board, $10.00 per month (cheap table, $6.00). Washing, $2 00 per month. Law Department, $40 00 per year: Medical, $10.00 initiation fee, $30.00 graduation fee, and no tuition fee.

NECESSITIES.

Howard University appeals to the Christian public of all denominations for pecuniary aid. It has grounds and buildings which cost over $500,000, which are free of debt, but it has no permanent endowments for its professorships, and no endowed scholarships for indigent students. Situated at the national capital, where its work is conspicuous, it has the noblest opportunity to reach all parts of the land with its elevating influence. Appeal is made, for generous contributions, to churches, Sunday schools, ladies' societies, and benevolent individuals.

Address

Rev. WM. W. PATTON, D. D., President.

Hartford Theological Seminary.

By its organization the Seminary is closely allied to the churches through the Pastoral Union, which annually elects the Trustees.

The plan of instruction is so arranged as to make the study of the Bible the chief feature of the entire course. The patrons, guardians, and teachers of the Institution are persuaded that an exegetical and experimental knowledge of the Divine Word should be sought first of all by candidates for the gospel ministry. They also believe that scholarly investigation, controlled and tempered by the spirit of truth, justifies unfaltering adherence to the doctrinal system set forth in the accredited formularies of New England Congregationalism.

It is the aim of each Professor to strengthen, on the part of the students, the habit of personal investigation. Daily drills bring teachers and pupils into such close relations as favor mental activity and appropriate criticism. This confidential intercourse also contributes in many ways to the promotion of personal piety; and it is gratifying to observe how promptly the young men co-operate with their instructors in seeking this fundamental qualification for the sacred office.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission are expected to produce evidence that they are members of some Christian church, and that they have graduated at some college, or have made such literary acquisitions as, in the opinion of the Faculty, are an equivalent preparation for theological studies. They will be examined in reference to their personal piety and their motives in seeking the ministry.

THE SPECIAL OR SHORT COURSE HAS BEEN DISCONTINUED.

Besides lectures on Congregationalism, Moot Councils are held from time to time, for the purpose of making the students familiar with the principles and usages of our Church Polity.

Each class receives instruction in vocal culture from Prof. R. G. Hibbard.

All the classes meet the Faculty each week for general rhetorical exercises, which include extemporaneous discussions, reading of Scripture, and Hymns, Sermons, Essays, and Reviews.

Conferences are held by the Professors for familiar instruction and counsel on subjects of practical importance to the students as Christians and candidates for the sacred office.

EXAMINATION.

At the close of each year all the classes are examined, orally and by written exercises, before the Instructors and a Committee appointed by the Pastoral Union and Trustees.

EXPENSES.

No charge is made for tuition, room-rent, or the use of the library. The rooms are supplied with necessary articles of furniture.

Arrangements for board, at a common table, are made by the Trustees. The price of board will not exceed $4.00 per week. Assistance will be furnished towards defraying this expense, in proportion to the necessities of each student, at the discretion of the Faculty. Fuel and lights may be estimated at from $15 to $20 the year, for each room.

The appropriation for board is made on the condition that those who receive it attend regularly on the duties of the Seminary throughout the term, unless absent for reasons which the Faculty deem sufficient.

In addition, the American Education Society renders aid to the amount of $100 annually. Students who are licensed have occasional opportunities to preach for compensation.

LICENSE TO PREACH.

By the laws of the Institution, students can receive license to preach at the close of the Middle Year.

LIBRARIES.

Besides the library and reading-room of the Seminary, students have access without charge to the Watkinson Library, one of the best in the country, for consultation. They also have the benefit of the Young Men's Institute Library, including a large assortment of periodicals. These collections of books and periodicals are only a short distance from the Seminary.

CALENDAR.

There is but one term of study in the year, which begins on the second Thursday of September, and closes on the second Thursday of May. Students have an opportunity in the long vacation to engage in some form of Christian activity, from which they may derive religious advantages and practical knowledge as well as pecuniary benefit.

Persons desiring to join the Seminary are invited to address Prof. Wm. Thompson, from whom they will receive such additional information as may be needed.

It is earnestly desired that students should be present at the opening of the term.

My Dear Sir:

You ask me what I think of the Mackinnon Pen? After having used it constantly for more than a year, both at my office desk, and in my library at home I find it really indispensable to comfortable writing. Carefully filled and handled, it need never trouble one; while the advantage of being able to write for hours without recourse to an inkstand, is a relief which I greatly appreciate. As this is written with it, all can judge of the quality of its performance.

Faithfully, Henry M. Dexter. Ed. Congt.

7. AN EASY WAY TO EXTEND THE BENEFICENT WORK OF THE SOCIETY IS TO PATRONIZE IT. The Society is a book-seller. It is the agent that manages a co-operative bookstore, of which all the profits are for the general advantage of the churches. No individual has the slightest personal interest, or gains the least amount, whether many or few books are sold. The churches and Sunday schools are the ones who gain; the business is wholly in their interest, and for their profit. It is for them, easily if they will, to make it yield a large revenue for the common cause. By not a cent's additional cost, by simply allowing their own co-operative bookstore to reap the profit on the purchases they make somewhere to somebody's profit, Congregationalists may make their Publishing Society a mighty instrument for good. The bookstore furnishes not only its own publications, but those of all societies and publishers that may be called for: Books for theological libraries, for families, for churches and Sunday schools; whatever ministers, superintendents, teachers, private persons may desire. Those who for any reason prefer other publications to our own, may procure them through the bookstore, and so allow the profit to go to the common charity fund. It is no objection that the distance from Boston is great for many. Orders and parcels can be sent anywhere by mail or express at minimum cost. Where there is a will there is a way. Our Methodist friends, by patronizing their Book Concerns, out of the accumulation of small profits have endowed them with a working capital — some two millions of dollars — twenty times what we ask for.
